

Representative David Schweikert is accepting applications for full and part time congressional interns for Fall 2016 in his Arizona and D.C. offices.

Candidates should be motivated, detail-oriented, multi-tasking and service-oriented students looking to learn more about the civic responsibilities of a congressional office.

Strong ties to Arizona's 6th District or the state of Arizona are preferred, but anyone is encouraged to apply. Priority is given to current college students, although recent high school graduates with outstanding credentials will be considered. College credits are available per school requirements.

Responsibilities in the Arizona office include correspondence, constituent services research and assistance, event planning, and media assistance.

Responsibilities in the D.C. office include administrative assistance, answering the phone, giving tours of the Capitol, and assisting with correspondence.

Interested applicant should submit their applications by August 5, 2016.
